

Worship and Ethics: Study in Rabbinic Judaism

This book is a very scholarly study of prayer in rabbinic Judaism, and on the relationship between prayer, ethics and theology. The book discusses a wide variety of Jewish worship and the character of Jewish ethics, but also demonstrates that in rabbinic Judaism, worship and ethics are closely associated in rabbinic Judaism. The creative agency which developed both spheres is Halakah, the rabbinic law, and their close relationship. Worship and ethics: a study in rabbinic Judaism. Front Cover. Max Kadushin.
